

Kendallville Heritage Association Meeting Minutes

The regular meeting of the Kendallville Heritage Association met August 23, 2021.

Becky presented the membership report. It has been 1 year since we had the meeting to decide what direction Kendallville Heritage Association would take. Amanda did a great job rounding up people for that meeting. We had a membership of 7 last year. And now we are a membership of 35.

Individual Membership	13
Family Memberships	16
Paid Membership with Donation Family	6
Paid Membership with Donation Individual	0
Total Members	35

Amanda reported that we have been asked to fill some display cases on the 3rd floor of the Community Learning Center for the Dekko Foundation Open House. We will need to have representation of the entire Noble County. Maybe set up photos with descriptive cards along with some historical items. We will want some uniformity. We do not just want to throw a hodge podge together. Amanda will look into getting a form together for loan items we may receive. Amanda will also contact the county historian and other people to request loans. Annie will check with a graphic artist she knows to see if they will volunteer their time for this project. Or see if they know someone who would. Annie also suggested that we may want to try to get sponsors for this display project to cover any costs we incur. Terry volunteered to work on possible ideas for the larger cabinet.

For one of the rooms on the 3rd floor of the Community Learning Center we will like to find a historical map of Kendallville. Possibly showing the different historical districts and events. Jill and Annie will look into. Deb has one that she could possibly loan. Picture this in Print store had some for sale. We are not sure if they are still available.

Amanda will talk with Julia first, and if ok she will contact Sheryl Prentice to see if she will do an article on our new project.

Next meeting will be September 27, 2021 at 6p.m. at the Community Learning Center Board Room.

Meeting was adjourned

Respectfully submitted,
